FOUND REWARD
the subscriber, living on the head of the Nanticoke river, December 2, 1773.
The subscriber on the day aforesaid, discovered a small boat lying on her beam, with her sails aground near a point, in about five feet of water at low water, the wind being then at WSW.
The subscriber took the anchor of the said schooner out board his boat and set sail, endeavouring to force her on ragged point but could not, he then made a purchase to raise her, but the weather proving very cold, he took her two sails, halliards, cable and anchor, one rug, one blanket, one shirt, one frock, one small coat, one old Dutch overcoat, one knife, one bracket, one pewter basin, one small jug with some rum in it, one pair of old troulers, one pump hook, and some blocks, and went home; on the twentieth of the same instant I went to her again, and found she had moved about three quarters of a mile up the river, and endeavoured to raise her but in vain; any person claiming the above articles may have them, proving their property, paying charges, and applying to

WHEREAS I purchased of Agnes Walsh, of the province of Maryland, a lot containing half an acre in the town of Staunton, with a wood lot of 50 acres belonging to the same, for the consideration of two pounds ten shillings, current money of Virginia, for the payment of which sum, I together with Felix Gilbert, entered into a bond, payable to said Agnes semi-annual in the month of March next; whereas since the said purchase was made, I have received notice from a certain Samuel Guy, that he had a prior title to the said lot, and land, and did urge me to make any improvement on the said lot. These are therefore to forewarn all persons, from making an assignment on the said bond, as I am determined not to pay the same until the matter respecting the title is cleared up, or until this Agnes, Walsh, do enter into bond, together with good security, in the sum of one thousand pounds for the security of the said title; as I purpose building a merchant-mill, and other houses high to that value. From under my hand, this 27th day of February, 1773.

to me from Dublin, some time in June or July last, and as they have not come to hand (as I suppose) from my being a stranger in this province; I do this method; therefore, to inform any gentleman to whose hands they may possibly have fallen, that they will much oblige me if they inform Mr. Stephen St. or Mr. Richard Poole, in Annapolis, either by letter or any other convenient way, who will be seen for any charges they may be liable to. The doing which will be only an act of justice to their subscriber,
